

I have Never... .

Each guest will be given 10 pennies at the start of the game. Beginning with the hostess, each guest must say something that she HAS NEVER done that she thinks other guests HAVE done. Example: "I have never got a speeding ticket." Anyone who has been given a speeding ticket must give up one penny to that guest. Go around the room twice. At the end, the person with the most pennies gets a prize. Be sure to tell guests that they need to be honest. Be careful - this one can get a little crazy, depending on the group!! But, it can be hilarious
